Gamers' eSIM will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the personal identifiable information held about Subscriber is protected from misuse and loss or from unauthorized access, modification or disclosure. The data Subscriber provides to Gamers' eSIM is protected using SSL (Secure Socket Layer) technology. SSL is the industry standard method of encrypting personal information and credit card details so that they can be securely transferred over the Internet. Gamers' eSIM will also take reasonable steps to destroy or de-identify Subscriber's personal data when Gamers' eSIM no longer need it and it is not necessary retain data to comply with applicable laws. Please note that Gamers' eSIM retain personal data till it is necessary to provide Gamers' eSIM services or till Gamers' eSIM have a legal obligation to process it. To determine the appropriate retention period, Gamers' eSIM consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data and the purposes for which Gamers' eSIM process it. Gamers' eSIM must also consider periods for which Gamers' eSIM might need to retain personal data in order to meet our legal obligations or to deal with complaints, queries and to protect our legal rights in the event of claims being made.

Subscriber's Data Protection Rights

Under certain circumstances, by law Subscriber have the right to:

- Request information about whether Gamers' eSIM hold personal information about Subscriber, and, if so, what that information is and why Gamers' eSIM are holding or using it.
- Request access to Subscriber's personal data (data subject access request). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data Gamers' eSIM hold about you.
- Request correction of the personal data that Gamers' eSIM hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data Gamers' eSIM hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of Subscriber's personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove Subscriber's personal data where you have exercised Subscriber's right to object to processing.
- Object to processing of Subscriber's personal data where Gamers' eSIM are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about Subscriber's particular situation, which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object when Gamers' eSIM are processing Subscriber's personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Object to automated decision-making including profiling, that is not to be subject of any automated decision-making by us using Subscriber's personal data or profiling of you.
- Request the restriction of processing of Subscriber's personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request transfer of Subscriber's personal data in an electronic and structured form to you or to another party (commonly known as a right to "data portability"). This enables you to take Subscriber's data from us in an electronically useable format and to be able to transfer Subscriber's data to another party in an electronically useable format.
- Withdraw consent. Then you have provided Subscriber's consent to the collection, processing and transfer of Subscriber's personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw Subscriber's consent for that specific processing at any time. Once Gamers' eSIM have received notification that you have withdrawn Subscriber's consent, Gamers' eSIM will no longer process Subscriber's data for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless Gamers' eSIM have another legitimate basis for doing so.
